

Regarding the laws governing CLOSED CAPTIONING, I would like to comment that my 12 year old hearing-impaired son's television viewing satisfaction is completely dependent on the quality and consistency of this service. His ability to read the spoken word has not only made his viewing experience richer, but more importantly has given him the opportunity to benefit from the wealth of educational information available through various programs. Your continued support of Closed Captioning services is greatly appreciated!